Dear Sir / Madam,

I write in full support of Emmanuel Patrick ' s application of scholarship of Masters in International Industrial Relations. I lectured him in Human Resource Management in his second year of undergraduate studies. My experience with this individual has been joyous. It has propelled me to endorse him as an eligible candidate of the scholarship. I am highly convinced that Emmanuel Patrick would never let you down.

The more I perused the scholarship criteria, the more certain I was that Emmanuel is the student you have been seeking. Emmanuel has been a top student in all his courses - including the one I taught. He displayed team building skills, tenacity, a great sense of critical thinking and hard work. His behavior has unveiled that his deepest values are respect, diligence and self discipline. Emmanuel 's academic performance has always been outstanding.

Once, I gave my students a project assignment to execute in different groups. Emmanuel's group performance on "The Relevance of Industrial Relations in the 21st century" was magnificent. Patrick helped his teammates in making thorough research and backing up the claims with quantitative and qualitative examples. Another facet of Emmanuel that fascinates me is his passion for whatever is right. I once made an erroneous statement in class. During the break, Emmanuel respectfully sought for my attention to express why he felt I was wrong in class. It turned out that I had made a mistake. I corrected my argument the next day in class and publicly applauded for paying such a detailed attention. His financial status currently affects his ability to pay tuition fees. Nevertheless, this scholarship is the opportunity that meets preparation.

With no regrets, I endorse and recommend Emmanuel Patrick to win the scholarship award. His academic performance will leave you mesmerized. And his fervor for diligence confirms his trustworthiness and accountability. For further information, kindly contact me at mabelrodrigs@gmail.com

Sincerely,
Mabel Rodrigs.
