

Zoologist Resume Example

Ricky E. Waddy
2531 Bird Spring Lane,
38th Blvd,
Deer Park, TX - 77536
Email: ricky.waddy@example.com
Contact no.: (281) 542-7784

Career Objective:

Looking for a challenging position as a Zoologist in a well-renowned organization, where I can skillfully apply my technical abilities in improving the research and documentation work for environmental studies.

Career Summary:

Five years of experience in this field; sound knowledge regarding testing, analysis, and studying of animal kingdom. Honored for handling the research work regarding endangered species.

Qualification:

- Certified Program in Standard Zoological Theories from Furman State University, South Carolina, SC
- Completed Post Graduation in Environmental Science and Zoology from south Dakota State University, South Dakota, SD, in March 2003 - Grade A
- Completed Graduation in Animal Science from Dallas Baptist University, Texas, TX, in 2001 - Grade A
- Completed High School from Baylor Community High School, in 1998 with Grade A in Science

Skills Summary:

- Expert in handling feeding habits of the endangered species
- Possess exceptional interest in traveling and research regarding animal life
- Capable of monitoring several species of animals, and researching about their behavior
- Expert in handling a team of 12+, and skilled in independent work
- Organized and skilled in maintaining important numerical records

Technical and Professional Skills:

- Expert in handling the online study of animal science
- Competent in MS-Access, MS-Excel and other MS-Office software packages
- Skilled and comfortable to work on varied platforms like Windows XP, Windows Vista, Linux, UNIX, etc.
- Familiar with the animal and other species behavioral characteristics

- Well-trained to look after the research work, perform the daily work of wildlife management, research about the animal components, etc.

Work Experience:

Current Employer: American Zoological Society (2007 - till date)

Designation: Zoologist

Job responsibilities:

- Skilled in handling the daily routines of wildlife animals, and of the endangered species
- Maintained complete records and documents regarding their medical observation, treatments, etc.
- Supervised the distribution of wild animals and maintained their natural surroundings
- Collected different samples and prepared various slides for species identification and development
- Carried out experimental studies on endangered species

Previous Employer: Lawrence Zoological Society (2006-2007)

Designation: Assistant Zoologist

Job responsibilities:

- Assisted seniors and zoologists in the study of complex processes related to animal life
- Observed and maintained natural habitat of every organism and wildlife animals
- Studied the origin and development of wildlife and endangered species, and experimented on their behavioral characteristics
- Skillfully examined overall structure of the wildlife animals and researched about the brain tissues
- Handled various experiments and tests conducted on different species of birds and endangered animals

Achievements and Awards:

- Time-honored awards for studying the characteristic features of tropical animals
- Persistent candidate and winner of awards for collecting wildlife samples, and conducting experiments on them
- Rewarded for handling the identification and classification of endangered species, and a variety of birds at workplace in Lawrence Zoological Society
- Awarded with 'Best Zoologist' award, for handling the species development work, studying the natural habitat of the wildlife animals, etc. at workplace in American Zoological Society

Mobility and Flexibility:

Willing to relocate anywhere in Maryland and Puerto Rico